

The 25-Year Dream Comes True

By Heidi Kiser

As many of us horse gals do, I started talking about horses as soon I left the womb. I was lucky enough to grow up riding a feral pony around the farm, dreaming of the day I would own every horse in the world.

By high school, my love of horses led to showing in 4H and at local shows near Fond du Lac. Alas, I went off to college, got married, moved out of state and had children, and my horse life paused for 25 years.

The dream came back when I purchased a dressage pad during a visit to the Spanish Riding School in Vienna 17 years ago. It took a long time, but I'm happy to say that with coaching and training from Crystal Schwochert, I was finally able to get back in the arena, riding my first dressage tests at the WDEA schooling show in 2025. I look forward to growing as a rider and learning more about dressage through my membership with WDEA.

Editor's Note: Heidi is a new member of WDEA. She lives in Fond du Lac. Welcome to our group!

It's been a crazy, busy month with family and horse-related activities—and a bit of remodeling: putting new floors throughout the main level of our house. While I have a very handy husband who is doing all of the work, I had to go out on the deck to study to get away from the noise and ask him to take a time-out when I was doing my online exam for the R judge program. But I didn't complain!

Like Heidi Kiser in the front-page story, balancing family and horse life can be a challenge, but we are all a determined breed, and we get it done as best as we can. To help with your educational needs, I hope all of you received my email, introducing you to your Member-at-Large. They can help you kick off educational and fun events in your area, so in this case—take advantage of them!

Likewise, if you have any questions about the WDEA awards program, Jessica is there to help. Since show season is already underway, contact her soon. I know she'll even be interested in suggestions for year-end awards or ideas to make our program even better. (NOTE: All the awards forms are included at the end of this newsletter.)

Happy trails!

Trainer's Corner: Cindy Ishoy

By Caryn Vesperman

During my winter escape to Florida, I was invited to watch my friend work with Cindy Ishoy, a six-time Olympian. Prior to the Covid pandemic, I brought Cindy in a few times a year, but have kind of drifted away from hosting clinics. Unfortunately for this lesson, I forgot to bring pen and paper, so I was trying to put notes in my phone. I couldn't get it all down, but here are some tips that may help in your dressage training.

Cindy Ishoy advises riders not to micro-manage, but to be accurate in your riding. If you're heading to a letter, get there. If you're riding a 20-meter circle, make sure you know where the points are so it's not an oval.

Exercises:

To check if your horse is truly on your aids, ride a canter half-pass to the quarter line, and then leg yield back. If the horse switches leads in the leg yield, stiffens, or goes above the bit, don't panic. Mistakes are okay because they make you evaluate what was missing: were your aids correct, where was your weight, was your horse supple enough, etc.

A good exercise to check suppleness is to do a traverse/haunches-in on a 20-meter circle. Then slowly spiral in to a 10-meter circle and then leg yield out.

To help collect the horse and get them more attentive to your aids, do a four-loop serpentine in trot or canter with a walk transition over the centerline. You can add 10-, 15- or 20-meter circles on the long side too.

Tips:

When you half-halt, always give after. You need to release to reward the horse for listening. Don't keep hanging on the reins. That will cause contact problems: bracing in the underneck, tight topline, grinding of the teeth, mouth open, and/or tongue drawn up or flapping outside the mouth.

Circles don't have corners, so make sure you don't go too deep in the corners when you are doing 20-meter circles at A or C.

For canter pirouettes, think smaller at the beginning. This helps keep the pirouette from being too large. Also, if you start and keep a canter pirouette doing haunches in, bio-mechanically speaking, the horse's shoulders can never catch up to do the pirouette correctly.

One of Cindy's favorite quotes—which applies so well to dressage and eventing is from golfer Jack Nicholas: “The more I practice, the luckier I get.”

Cindy Ishoy, a six-time Olympian, was a member of the Canadian Equestrian Team at the 1988 Summer Olympics in Seoul, winning a team Bronze.

Two WDEA Volunteer Opportunities

Member-at-Large (MAL)

Here's a way to get involved to help encourage the interest, organizing and awareness of educational and social opportunities within WDEA!

Your MAL volunteer activities include, but are not limited to:

- Attend the Board of Directors' meetings held approximately three to four times a year (usually by teleconference, so very little travel to these meetings is required),
- Represent your members' needs and interests in your area and on the board,
- Serve as a chair of committees, as needed.

Newsletter Editor

Do you enjoy writing, editing and design work for publications like a newsletter? Do you want to put your skills to use to keep members informed, educated and even entertained about what's going on with dressage and eventing in Wisconsin—and what's happening on the national level with the USDF? Here's the answer: Volunteer as our newsletter editor.

Responsibilities:

- Write articles as necessary, solicit and coordinate other editorial including stories, calendar and advertising submissions, and manage layout, production and online distribution of the newsletter.
- Make judgments on editorial submissions that are in keeping with news and not business promotions, unless article is, for example, a profile of a member and his/her business. Bring any questionable sub-missions to the board's attention, prior to publishing.
- Work closely with the WDEA webmaster on shared website content as well as our Facebook pages.
- Serve on the WDEA board of directors.

Must be comfortable producing an electronic newsletter (created in Word or some other design program), then converting the finished piece to a PDF and distributing it to members via email.

Contact our WDEA President (president@Wldressage.org) if interested in either of these positions.

Amateur Affidavit

WDEA follows the USEF's definition of amateur status per the USEF Rule Book:

Regardless of one's equestrian skills and/or accomplishments, a person is an amateur for all competitions conducted under Federation rules who, after his/her 18th birthday, as defined in GR1306.1, has not engaged in any of the activities which would make him/her a professional.

For information on remuneration that prohibits individuals from amateur status, review GR1306.2-7.

Exceptions/Specifics

- Traditional Dressage Division: Individuals are only eligible to compete as amateurs from the beginning of the calendar year in which they reach age 22. See DR119.3.
- Eventing Division: See EV Appendix 2, Sectionb 1.3 — Participation in Horse Trials.
- Western Dressage Division: See WD102.7b.

NOTE: Dressage Opportunity classes do not require amateur status. (See GR1307.1a)

I have read the USEF definition of amateur status and attest that I am eligible to compete as an amateur under USEF rules.
